

The Music
Ava Ocker

The world right now is silent,

It's only black and white.

I am all alone,

And nothing is alright.

I press play

The music I play gets louder,

And matches my heartbeat.

The colors fill the air,

Surrounding my defeat.

I turn it up

I let all my worries go,

I let them fade away.

Singing louder to the song,

I've got on replay.
