

Controlling My Mind

Abigail Wollaeger

Chaos

Racing with a million worries

Wonders

Exploding in my head too many times to count

Emotions

The one thing my brain can't handle on its own

Dreams

Only coming true if you believe

Energy

Have it when you need it

Hope

Comes at the hardest times

Pain

Brutally pulling me into flames of anger

Imagination

Often goes wild unconsciously

Courage

Rising higher and higher to face my enemies

Anxiety

Fear's greatest ally

Curiosity

Pushing me around unknown corners

Love
Stronger than all
