

Look Harder
Frida Perez and Alondra Abarca

Look a little harder
Look a little deeper and maybe then you'll see what I see.
Maybe you'll see the beauty I see
Maybe you'll see kindness and generosity I see
Because you've given up everything you have to make others feel better
Because you've help others and not yourself.
Stare in that mirror and look how beautiful you are.
Don't look for the flaws on you
Don't look for the fat on your belly
Don't look for the fat on your thighs
Don't look on the outside.
Look in that mirror and repeat after me
I am beautiful
I am beautiful
I am beautiful
Because you are.
Because you are worthwhile
Because you are loved.
Because I love you
There are people who care about you
They want you to be-YOU.
